

| CERTIFICATE IN SUSTAINABILITY   |  |
|--|--|
| Winter 2025   | Course                                      |
| 1) The Sustainability Problem - one of the following:                 |  |
| No courses this semester   |  |
| 2) Dimensions of Human Sustainability - one of the following:         |  |
| INDG 100  | Introduction to Indigenous Studies                 |
| INDG 225  | Principles of Indigenous Law                       |
| JS 100  | Introduction to Justice                            |
| JS 280  | Introduction to Social Justice                     |
| RLST 275  | Women in World Religions                           |
| SOC 208   | Inequality and Social Justice                      |
| SOC 214   | Sociology of Indigenous People in Canada           |
| WGST 100  | Introduction to Women's and Gender Studies         |
| 3) Dimensions of Environmental Sustainability - one of the following: |  |
| GES 120   | Human Geography                                    |
| GEOL 102  | Earth and Environment                              |
| 4) Human Sustainability Options - one of the following:               |  |
| ECON 253  | Economic Issues in the Canadian Health Care System |
| IDS 101   | Interdisciplinary Studies: Contemporary Issues     |
| INDG 201  | Introduction to Contemporary Indigenous Issues     |
| PHIL 272  | Contemporary Moral Issues                          |
| WGST 206  | Feminism & Activism                                |
| SOC 333   | Sociology of Disaster                              |
| SOC 355   | The Global Food System                             |
| 5) Environmental Sustainability Options - one of the following:       |  |
| No courses this semester   |  |
| 6) Sustainability in Practice - one of the following:                 |  |
| SOST 307  | Applied Methods: Qualitative Approaches            |
| NSLI 100  | Foundations of the Nonprofit Sector                |
| NSLI 220  | Nonprofit Advocacy and Community Development       |

Please consult the University of Regina Calendar for specific program detail and requirements.

For more information, please contact Dr. Roger Petry, Professor of Philosophy at Luther College at the University of Regina, at 1-306-585-5295 or roger.petry@uregina.ca.