YOUR WEEKLY CONNECTION

NAIN CONNECT 2015
Restoring Spirit Through Sacred Listening
July 19-22, 2015
Luther College at the University of Regina
Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada

Each week we will bring you updates on Connect 2015 and give you tips on how to make your visit to Connect, and Regina, memorable!

May 11, 2015

Connecting With You This Week

Join us in Regina – the City of Infinite Horizons – for Connect 2015! We are excited to showcase the depth, breadth, caliber, and passion of the people who are part of Connect 2015. Our theme, which can also be understood as reconciliation through deep listening, takes us into the difficult work of becoming sacred listeners. Our days together will allow us to do this in meaningful and restorative ways. Our minds, bodies, and spirits will be challenged and renewed. We think you will be equally excited about Connect 2015!

A full schedule of plenaries, workshops, and tours is now online at www.luthercollege.edu/nain2015. Registration is currently $300 (Can) and goes up to $350 June 1. Spaces are filling up quickly so register now!

This Week’s Highlights

Tour the Healing Garden at First Nations University of Canada and learn about the role of plants indigenous to the prairies in healing.

Hear Zarqa Nawaz, creator of the television show Little Mosque on the Prairie, speak about the role of humour in healing.

For more information on our program, how to sign up for tours, where to stay, and what to do while you are in Regina, visit us online at www.luthercollege.edu/nain2015