

Clinical Psychology – Tenure-Track

Luther College invites applications for a tenure-track position in Clinical Psychology at the Assistant Professor rank, starting July 1, 2019, subject to budgetary approval. Applicants should have a PhD completed or near completion in clinical psychology from a CPA- or APA-accredited program, and be eligible for registration as a Psychologist in Saskatchewan as soon as possible after appointment. Successful candidates should be able to teach a range of undergraduate courses. Ability to teach cross-cultural and/or positive psychology would be an asset.

Luther College is committed to excellence in teaching, but successful applicants should also demonstrate research productivity or evidence of an active research program, and should be willing to supervise honours and graduate students. Responsibilities include teaching (typically, 4.5 courses per academic year), research, and service to the College, University and community.

Luther College is federated with the University of Regina, a comprehensive public University. Candidates should identify strongly with the vision and mission of the College and express a clear interest in the smaller context of an interdisciplinary college, where spiritual and humanistic concerns and diversity are valued. Information about Luther College is available at www.luthercollege.edu/university, and about the University of Regina at www.uregina.ca.

The successful candidate will also be a member of the University of Regina's Department of Psychology (<https://www.uregina.ca/arts/psychology/index.html>), which has graduate programs in both Clinical and Experimental & Applied Psychology. The program in Clinical Psychology is committed to the scientist-practitioner model and is accredited by the Canadian Psychological Association. The Department relates to a number of health-care, research, and other educational facilities in Regina and throughout Saskatchewan, and has developed the state-of-the-art Sun Life Training Clinic (<https://www.uregina.ca/external/communications/releases/current/psa-11262014.html>).

Applications should include cover letter; curriculum vitae outlining disciplinary interests and professional qualifications; teaching dossier demonstrating excellence or potential in undergraduate teaching; research dossier with evidence of an active or potential research program; and a statement explaining the candidate's interest in teaching at Luther College. Applicants should also provide photocopies of transcripts and the names and contact information of three referees.

The deadline for applications is December 15th, 2018. Applications should be sent to:

Dr. Yvonne Petry, Academic Dean
Luther College, University of Regina, 3737 Wascana Parkway
Regina, SK S4S 0A2
dean@luthercollege.edu

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Luther College is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from all qualified candidates including women, indigenous people, visible minorities, and people with disabilities.