New Board Members for Luther College, Regina

Luther College is pleased to announce two new members have joined the Luther College Board of Regents. Stephen Davis and Graham Quick were elected for their first term (2025-2029) at Luther College's 2025 Annual General Meeting held October 25, 2025.

Stephen Davis is an Associate Professor in Education at the University of Regina. He holds a Mentored PhD in Education from the University of Regina, a Master of Arts in Second Language Education from McGill University, a Baccalauréat en éducation française (Distinction) from the University of Regina, and a Bachelor of Arts in French (Distinction) from the University of Saskatchewan.

Stephen served as the delegate for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada on the recent Luther College Presidential Search Committee (2024-2025). He also served on the Board of Directors and the Governance Committee of Canadian Lutheran World Relief (2021-2022) and is a former Peer Chaplain at Luther College at the University of Regina (2011-2013).

As a Lutheran, educator, and academic, Stephen deeply values Luther's commitment to holistic, rooted in faith learning and its impact on students and the broader community.

Graham Quick is a lawyer and partner at McKercher LLP in Regina. He graduated from Luther College High School in 2007 and went on to receive his Bachelor of Commerce – Finance (Distinction) from the University of Saskatchewan and Juris Doctor (Distinction), College of Law from the University of Saskatchewan.

Graham has previously served on Boards for SaskExpress, the Regina Bar Association, and volunteered with Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan and the Canada Bar Association (2020).

As an alumnus, Graham greatly values the experience, knowledge, and opportunities provided to him and believes Luther College is an excellent educational institution in the city of Regina and within Saskatchewan.
